LeVander will give keynote address at commencement

Commencement has been rescheduled for 2:30 in the afternoon of June 9, and Senior Class Day will be at 4 p.m. on June 4.

The commencement, President DuFresne stated, is to accommodate the principle speaker, Governor LeVander, who will speak at St. Cloud in the morning. The selection of the speaker, and the decision to change commencement to the afternoon, he went on to say, was made by the student committee on commencement.

PLANS are made, he concluded, to hold the commencement exercises in Memorial Hall.

Senior Class Day will take the place of Baccalaureate, according to Miss Finch, senior class advisor. President DuFresne will preside at the program which will be in Somsen Auditorium.

Miss Bard will be the organist for the occasion, and play both a prelude and postlude.

THERE WILL be short speeches by the salutatorian, Richard Childers, senior class president, and by the valedictorian. The college choir, conducted by Mr. McCluer will sing, and Leonard Purrington will present a trumpet solo, accompanied by Jane Hilke. Dr. Duefresne will be the principle speaker at the last gathering of the senior class before commencement.

Senior class officers with Childers are: Ron Luloff, vice president; Sharon Sobraske, secretary; and Ron Klies, treasurer.

GRADUATION announcements will be distributed in about two weeks, Miss Finch added. The senior class advisor said that the reason for the delay is the change in the time of commencement. The announcements are printed, but correction slips have to be made before they can be distributed.

Performance to be held May 19-20 demonstrates how to catch a man

"Can an older respected surgeon retain his professional integrity in the throes of an unrequited love for his nurse?" "Will the life of the nurse's true love be spared as he lies on the operating table under the knife of the surgeon?"

These are but two of the questions posed in the operatic satire of the contemporary composer Douglas Moore that will be presented, complete with commercials, beginning next Thursday on Somsen stage. "Gallantry—a soap opera" is the final of two musical productions presented by the department of music and speech next week.

THE FIRST of the two shows answer yet another question of romance — a question posed by the speaker at a recent social affair: "How To Catch a Man."

The eighteenth century "opera comique" "The Maid Mistress" depicts the wiles of a winsome maid-servant and her efforts to win the hand of her employer. What does she do? Does she succeed? This short opera classic by the composer G. B. Pergolesi has been a favorite for years.

Both shows will be accompanied with full orchestra under the direction of Mr. McCluer of the music department. Settings and stage direction will be by Mr. Reidelberger of the department of speech.

All seats will be reserved. Students may obtain tickets at the box office by presenting their activity cards. Box office hours are from 11:00 to 1:00 now through next Friday. Curtain time for all performances is 8:15.

A SPECIAL NOTE to those students expecting their parents to attend the Friday or Saturday night performance: notify your parents to request that a ticket for you be reserved next to their reserved seats. All three tickets may be picked up at the box office on the night of performance.

"Peace in Vietnam" march will take place Saturday

Students from the three Winona colleges will hold a "Peace in Vietnam" march on Saturday, May 13 at Levee Park.

The demonstration will assemble at 12:45 and commence at 1:15 p.m. It is estimated to be 150-200 strong.

BEGINNING at Levee Park, the march will travel south on Lafayette to Third, then west to Main to the corner of Broadway and Main at the Central Methodist Church. A rally is planned with a series of speakers.

Rev. Gerald Conway, St. Mary's College faculty member and organizer of the parade said, "We wish to arouse the conscience of Winona to its responsibility for this conflict. Winonans even though half a world away, are confronted by the moral and political questions raised by this war."

These people are staging a peace demonstration to end this "de-humanizing" conflict. They want to express their feeling that the pursuit of the Vietnamese War waged by America is immoral, and urge the United States government to de-escalate, taking any and whatever steps necessary to secure conferences aimed to total peace.

REV. CONWAY has stated that the parade is to be held because the war in Vietnam weighs heavily on the consciences of many the world over, among whom are various students, faculty, and clergy in Winona.

Wenonah players close highly successful season

Two successful one-act plays closed out the Wenonah Players' Theatre season.

The Tri-College, One Act Plays were directed by Larry Rider and John Perry, advised by Miss Magnus.

Larry Shea and Nancy Johnson ably starred in "This Property is Condemned," one of Tennessee Williams' plays. Actual railroad ties and rails were used as part of the realistic setting. Directed by Larry Rider, it was well performed.

JOHN PERRY directed Kathy

Machoich, Allen Haynes and Alfonso Pagliarello in a readers theatre of "How He Lied to Her Husband," one of George Bernard Shaw's comedies. The actors did a fine job of reading the play, showing evidence of hard work.

Following the one acts, a social hour was held in the Smog for the members of the acting organizations of the College of Saint Teresa, St. Mary's College, and Winona State College. Alumni, faculty and students gathered for the tea.

Student Citizenship Committee presents new disciplinary form

During the winter quarter, the Winona State Student Association, in consultation with President DuFresne and the Personnel and Guidance Committee, under Mr. Mariner, has reviewed the make-up and functions of the Student Citizenship Committee, and students have been added.

Among their functions is the determination of the college citizenship status of a student and the initiation of remedial or rehabilitation procedures when such steps are indicated.

The following is the revised notification form adopted for use of the Student Citizenship Committee, which tells the student the reason for the disciplinary action, the decision of the committee, and what it means.

1. Disciplinary Warning. Consists of disciplinary counseling. The interview will be conducted by a staff member of the Student Personnel Services Office. Student shall remain in "good standing." Disregard of this warning will result in further disciplinary action.

2. Disciplinary Probation. A status imposed on a student because of sub-standard citizenship achievement on or off campus. While this condition exists, the student is retained at the college for disciplinary counseling, testing, and periodic re-evaluation.

3. Disciplinary Social Probation. The student will surrender his identification card to the Student Personnel Services Office immediately and will thereafter be denied the privilege of attending all-college functions. Off-campus student residents will be issued an I.D. card restricted to library services and/or food services. Residence Hall students will be issued I.D. cards restricted to library and food services.

4. Strict Disciplinary Probation. Includes all of the stipulations of disciplinary social probation. A statement reading "See disciplinary record" will be attached to the student's permanent record and will appear on transcripts prior to graduation. The attached notation is removed at the time of graduation.

5. Disciplinary Suspension. An involuntary separation of the student from the college, implying and stating a time limit when return will be possible, and includes forfeitures of all rights and privileges formerly held as a student (fees and identification cards). Standard withdrawal procedures will be followed.

6. Disciplinary Dismissal. Involuntary separation of the student from the college, implying and stating that the separation is permanent. Standard withdrawal procedure will be followed.

Note: Item 2 is reported to the student, parent or guardian of minors, and residence hall director. Item 3, 4, 5, or 6 is reported to the student, the parent or guardian of minors, residence hall director or off-campus housing supervisor, Admission-Retention Committee, Financial Aids Committee, and Admission to Teacher Education Committee. Item 4, 5, or 6 is also reported to the Academic Dean and Registrar.

All entries relative to disciplinary action are recorded in the "disciplinary file" in the Office of Student Personnel Services.

Right of Appeal. The student may appeal with or without counsel any action affecting his status by filing a request in writing with the Student Citizenship Committee within ten (10) days.

Seniors take note

Seniors graduating in June who believe they qualify for honors, should apply immediately at the Registrar's Office.

To graduate "With Special Honor" a graduating student must have an over-all grade point average, and with at least a 3.0, but not 3.5, a student is graduated "With Honor."

THE FULL requirements for graduating with honors are set forth on page 29 of the college catalog.

Vandalism mars campus

At the college, where students are supposed to act as adults, $4,100 damage resulting from vandalism, looks pretty childish. This sum, according to Les Larson, head of Winona State's maintenance crew, is even higher because it doesn't include the cost of college labor.

SOME OF THIS vandalism, it must be admitted, may be caused by people who are not members of the college community, but there is much that can be directly blamed to Winona State students.

In talking with Mr. Larson, he pointed out that almost $500 in window damage has been done since last July. The windows in the new library addition are especially expensive since the glass is tinted and must be ordered from Milwaukee, and put in by professional crews.

Another expensive item is the damage to the acoustical tile in Prentiss Hall. It looks, Mr. Larson stated, as if students deliberately smash their fists into the tile, and he estimated that it would take over $500 to repair the damage.

DANCES, ALSO take their toll. To date, 12 towel cabinets have been torn from the walls after dances, and it takes about 2 hours and six dollars for each towel cabinet.

Signs also show the immaturity of many college students. Most signs, Mr. Larson feels, are taken by off-campus students. Besides taking signs, students deliberately break off the posts that the parking lot signs are on.

There is much more we could say. Around $3,000 damage was done in fire in the Women's Lounge, and the telephone on the corner of Sanborn and Washington is being taken out by the telephone company. This phone is one of the best paying ones in the city, but not enough is taken in to pay for the damages that are constantly being done to it.

STUDENTS complain about the high price of college, and Parents' Weekend is arriving soon. We claim to be adults. Isn't it about time we grow up and start acting like them?

Scholarships sorely needed

Winona State's athletic facilities are, for the most part, very good. The coaching is, in all sports, excellent. The athletic teams which have represented us in recent years have been top notch, considering.

Considering that Winona State is the smallest school in the Northern Intercollegiate Conference. Considering that Winona does not offer athletic scholarships, though all the other NIC schools do.

STUDENTS THAT compete in varsity athletics here make a big sacrifice. They must often take lighter credit loads, forcing them to graduate a year late. Often an athlete must sacrifice study and class time to compete in these sports, leaving him at a great disadvantage in competing for scholastic scholarships. It is seldom that an athlete can find time to seek part time work.

Where does his money come from? In most cases, his parents probably carry most of the load, in addition to what he can make in the summer.

WINONA STATE College is undergoing a period of rapid expansion and modernization, but the segment of this school which presents the majority of our image to the outside world is being left behind. This is a gross mistake, we feel, and we appeal to the administration to grant the athletic scholarships which have for so long been needed.

Senators criticize campus spirit

by Joan Wierzb

Tuesday's Student Association meeting was like a television program, black and white that is. The session consisted of complaints interjected with a few good tidings.

On the black side was a bundle of gripes by the Senators concerning the inadequate spirit of WSC's student body. According to Mike Trok, senator-at-large, "Student participation at WSC is null when compared to the other colleges represented at the Tri-State student governing convention. This was also echoed in Trok's account of the upcoming Who's Who elections when he reported that there are not enough students nominated for the honor to have an election on May 25.

Gary McDowell's report on homecoming was a sequel to Trok's messages. McDowell said he has heard a lot of discontent with the date for homecoming: October 14. Some feel that we WSCers will partake of the events of La Crosse's Oktoberfest, which is scheduled for the same week, instead of homecoming. This lack of school spirit was deplored by our homecoming senator.

The white side of the Association's meeting consisted of Don Elmlad's report on a proposed off-campus council. Housing senator, Elmlad, has written letters to neighboring colleges asking about their ideas and regulations for students living off-campus. But it is hoped that a council, comprised of apartment managers and off-campus students,

America in midst of change

To the Editor:

America and the world are in the midst of transition and change and hopefully some reform. Those who are content to sit and watch the world go by may be sorry tomorrow.

Today's world tries to prove that nineteenth century isolationism is dead and that we are all a part of the injustices of the American Nergo and the security of the world. The reason Northern civil rights workers march into Selma, Alabama is because it is a national problem, not a problem of Alabama alone. Students demonstrate against the war because it is a threat to world peace for all people, not only for residents of San Francisco, Chicago or New York.

THE WORD apathy is now trite and does not apply to those who are out of touch with current world and American problems and issues. To a few, the appropriate word is ignorance.

The keen edge

by Fredric Baranski

They came from all over the East Coast, from the Midwest — even from as far away as Denver: the banana-heads, the hippies, and the draft-card burners mingled with the veteran's groups, the women's groups, and the entertainers. They used a variety of slogans to get the message across: "Be Nice To Others," "Make Love, Not War" — this marching past the Playboy Club, "Children in Vietnam Want To Grow Up Too," and more imaginative graffiti. A group of hunters carried signs reading "Eat What You Kill."

The April 15th Spring Mobilization march against the war in Vietnam, attended by an estimated 100,000 to 200,000 people, succeeded in sickening at least one writer — a Mr. Thomas J. Davis. Writing for a national syndicate, he commented, "The setting, the mood, was of the Aborigine. The boom, boom, boom of the tom-toms beat the air." The crowd "responded to the mesmeric compulsion of the tempo with screams . . . emitted from wierdly distorted faces. Tens of thousands of feet kept beat with the drums in a pagan, shuffling dance which was inducing mass hypnotism, for 'all the world like a tribe of naked spear-bearers in the jungle.' Objective reporting, what?"

MR. DAVIS continues: "This was no protest. It was raw insanity . . . There were so many exhibitions of hate, violence, and pure filth and rotteness" — a peace march? — "that I, for one, shall forever be sickened at its memory. The Peace Marchers . . . made me sick to my stomach, unrelentingly angry and unswervingly contemptuous of the rotten underplanking of a civilization that could breed such subculture . . . I shall never forget nor forgive them. Least of all will I ever understand them." Evidently he won't even make the attempt.

While the author prefers to call it a rotten underplanking, he is in effect condemning the country that produced such perverts — Dr. Benjamin Spock; Nurses, Teachers, and Professors for Peace, among others — with the audacity to voice dissent. Then too, there was the quota of "bearded beatniks;" implicitly, anyone with a beard is suspect. Evidently, The March To End The War in Vietnam encompassed few "Real Americans."

INSUM: The fact is that the mobilization was peaceful. An enormous variety of factions found it possible to unite on the issue of peace in Vietnam. Among all these thousands of people, the five arrested were counter-demonstrators.

NEWS IN BRIEF: Approximately 99% of the student body has signed up for membership in the '67 Disorientation Team. Tentatively, no activities have been scheduled.

Siebenaler hit

Dear Mr. Siebenaler.

In reading this May 4th issue of the Winonan I noticed your letter and made these observations of literary errors in logic: You used faulty analogy when you associated demonstrations with a state of turmoil.

YOUR ARGUMENT was supposed to be directed at the question of whether WSC is a wasteland or not. You failed to give any valid proof that WSC is or is not a wasteland.

You involved yourself in a name-calling argument, " . . . I shall try not to consider him as just a stupid jerk . . . " which is usually resorted to when one has a weak argument to begin with.

It is evident that your highly emotional letter failed to prove anything to the readers except your own ignorance.

Yours truly,
Louis Bardel

English department offers an in depth major

Major changes in the English Program, including the addition of two speech courses and making it a major in depth course which doesn't require a minor have been approved by the specialization committee and are pending approval of the Curriculum Cabinet.

Most of these changes, according to Dr. Stenerson, head of the English Department, became necessary or advisable by the new regulations of the State Board of Education governing certification of teachers of English.

The Bachelor of Science revised requirements, which take effect Sept. 1, 1968 are:

The prerequisite for admission to 200 courses is the completion of the General Education requirements in English, and the lower division requirements should be completed before students enroll in the upper division courses.

210 or 212 Advanced Composition I or II	4
231-232 American Literature	8
304 Chaucer	3
321 or 322 Shakespeare's Plays I or II	3
347 Literary Criticism	3
420 American Grammar, Hist. or the English Language	4

Options from the sequence below:

306 or 307 or 333, 16th Century Literature or Spenser and Milton	4
330 or 340* or 341*, English Novel I or Age of Pope or Age of Johnson	4
335, 337, or 331, Romantic Era, Victorian Literature, or English Novel II	4
316, 350, 424, or 425, American Novel II, Studies in Modern American Literature, Modern Drama, or Contemporary Prose and Poetry	3 or 4

*Proposed new courses

**Students may not meet both 18th and 19th Century requirements by taking both novel courses.

Additional requirements:

Speech 220 Public Speaking	4
Speech 223 or 410 Oral Interpretation or Play Production	4
Educ. 300 Literature for Adolescents	3
Educ. 310 Teaching of English in the Secondary School	3

54 or 55

(See listings under Education)

Additional electives in English to bring the total of credits to 70, including any additional options from those listed above and any of the following:

Journalism 217, 218, 219 (2 each)	2
315 American Novel I	3
324 European Literature	3
327 Greek and Roman Literature	3
328 Old Testament	3
401 Literature of Colonial America	3
430 Independent Readings (per qtr.)	3

The revised Bachelor of Science English minor has the same prerequisites, and the following courses are required.

210 or 212 Advanced Comp. I or II	4
212 or 322 Shakespeare I or II	3
420 American Grammar and History of the English Language	4
Additional requirements as in the B.S. Major:
Speech 220 Public Speaking	4
Speech 223 or 410 Oral Interpretation or Play Production	4
300 Literature for Adolescents	3
Electives in English from courses numbered 300 or above	12

34

The Bachelor of Arts major is the same as the Bachelor of Science, with the deletion of the additional requirements, Speech 220, Speech 223 or 410, Education 300 and Education 310.

Bachelor of Arts candidates must have a total of 70 credits to graduate, including 29 or 30 quarter hours of electives.

Several English courses have been changed from four to three credits. The following courses have been changed because they are taught with increasing frequency at night or off campus so they have to be taught as three-credit courses. All of them are elective. The courses are:

324 European Literature
327 Greek and Roman Literature in Translation
328 The Old Testament as Literature
347 Literary Criticism
350 Studies in Modern American Literature
401 Literature of Colonial American Literature
424 Modern Drama
425 Contemporary Prose and Poetry

Several other courses are being dropped from the English offerings. These courses are:

Drop 221 Children's Literature	3
Drop 300 Literature for Adolescents	3
Drop 310 Teaching of English in the Sec. Schools	3
Drop 334 Eighteenth Century Lit.	4
Drop 212 Children's Literature
Drop 334 Eighteenth Century Literature

Children's Literature, 221 is listed under the Elementary education sequence as an alternative to Speech 215 or Speech 223.

Two new course offerings will replace Eighteenth Century Literature, 334. These are, 340 English Literature of the Age of Pope, and 341, English Literature at the Age of Johnson. Both are four credits.

Course numbers being changed are Chaucer and Literary Criticism. Chaucer, formerly 233, will be renumbered 304, and Literary Criticism, previously 427 will bear the tag of 347.

Noteworthy news in brief

Class drop

All students who still plan to drop classes must do so before May 18, according to Dr. Raymond, Academic Dean.

This action, taken, he said, by the Faculty Senate, not to authorize drops the last ten days of class immediately preceding finals are results of growth and mechanization.

WINONA STATE'S drop policy, said Dean Raymond, is one of the more liberal drop policies.

ITA course

A course in ITA will be taught by Dr. Grangaard, starting Monday, May 15. The course, non-credit requiring no fees, will meet on Monday's and Thursday's from 3-4 in Gildemeister 201.

Only those students who have had or are presently enrolling in Education 328, Teaching of Reading will be admitted.

Dormitory picnic

The dormitories will hold their annual picnic at Maxwell Field on May 16, according to Steve Joswick, secretary-treasurer of the men's dormitories.

The game will start at 4 p.m., and Slater's Food Service will serve a picnic supper including bratwurst and bar-b-que chicken, beginning at 5 p.m., and running to 6 p.m.

NO MEALS will be served at Kryzsko Commons and ID cards will be required for admittance to Loughrey Field and the picnic supper.

But I digress. We were discussing mnemonics, which are nothing more than aids to memory—little jingles to help you remember names, dates, and places. For example:

*Columbus sailed the ocean blue
In fourteen hundred ninety two.*

See how simple? Make up your own jingles. What, for instance, came after Columbus's discovery of America? The Boston Tea Party, of course. Try this:

*Samuel Adams flung the tea
Into the briny Zuyder Zee.*

(NOTE: The Zuyder Zee was located in Boston Harbor until 1801 when Salmon P. Chase traded it to Holland for Alaska and two line backers.)

But I digress. Let's get back to mnemonics. Like this:

*In nineteen hundred sixty seven

I mention Personna because the makers of Personna Super Stainless Steel Blades are the sponsors of this column. If I may get a little misty in this, the final column of the school year, may I say it's been a pleasure working for Personna? May I say further that it's been an even greater pleasure working for you, the undergrads of America? You've been a most satisfactory audience, and I'm going to miss you this summer. In fact, I'd ask you all to come visit me except there is no access to my room. The makers of Personna, after I missed several deadlines, walled me in. I have no doors or windows—only a mail slot. I slip the columns out; they slip in Personnas and such food as can go through a mail slot. (For the past six months I've been living on after dinner mints.)

I am only having my little joke. The makers of Personna have not walled me in, for they are good and true and gleaming and constant—as good and true and gleaming and constant as the blades they make—and I wish to state publicly that I will always hold them in the highest esteem, no matter how my suit for back wages comes out.

And so, to close the year, I give you one last mnemonic:
*Study hard and pass with honors,
And always shave with good Personnas!*

Warriors drop 1, but win series

Moorhead State snapped Winona's win streak at 12 Saturday, but the Warriors won the last two games of the triple-header to win the series.

The Warriors, now 8-1 in the NIC and 16-4 overall, fell one short of tying the school record of straight victories when they tumbled 2-1 in the opener.

BUT WINONA came back to take the second game 1-0 behind the brilliant pitching of Jack Benedict, and then took the third game 5-3 to win the series.

Chip Schwartz tossed an excellent four-hitter in the first game, his only mistake being in giving up two doubles in one inning. But Schwartz had no help from the hitter's box, as the Warriors left five stranded, the only run coming on an error, Dennis Morgan's single, and a double steal.

In the second game Benedict was in control all the way, allowing only two harmless singles in winning his fifth game of the season.

ALTHOUGH getting seven hits in the game, two each by Pat Boland and Hank Zacharias, Winona couldn't string them together. The lone run came in the second, when Boland walked and Mike Peruoco beat out an in-field hit, sending Boland to third. Then Tom Schmalfeldt lifted a fly to short right field, and Boland easily beat the throw home.

Dennis Iverson picked up his fifth win of the season in the nightcap, but not without a few tense moments.

The Warriors jumped off to a 3-0 lead, but a homer in the first and two runs in the third tied the score.

WINONA got the winning run reliever Joe Sailer in the fourth. Morgan singled, stole second, went to third on Iverson's fly ball and scored on Decker's single. They added an insurance run in the sixth to preserve Iverson's win.

Tuesday the Warrior baseballers traveled to Stevens Point for a non-conference tilt, and this weekend they host St. Cloud for a three game series. Game time Friday will be at 3 p.m., and Saturday's doubleheader will start at 12 noon at Gabrych Park.

The St. Cloud series could decide the outcome of the NIC race, as the present standings will illustrate:

	W	L
Winona	8	1
St. Cloud	8	1
Mankato	6	3
Moorhead	2	4
Morris	0	6
Bemidji	0	9

Witts grab bowl crown

The Witts won the Men's faculty bowling league title with a 67-37 record. The high single game was a tie between Jerry Witt and John Kane, both with a 232. The high for the three game series was Jerry Witt with a 575. The final standings are:

	Won	Lost
1. Witts	67	37
2. Wolfs	56½	47½
3. Upsets	50½	53½
4. Losers	48½	55½
5. Pschoes	46½	57½
6. Dented Derbbies	43	61

In the maintenance bowling league, the Misfits copped the title with a 65-47 record. Lyle Halliday led with a high single game of 265, and Chet Terras had the high three games for the year with a 600.

Tracksters improve, spilled by Carleton

The Warrior thinclads won some events they didn't expect to Monday, but lost at some of their stronger points, resulting in a 104-41 loss to Carleton.

In the mile, 880, and javelin the Warriors were seriously upset, managing only a third in each event, where they often score a sweep.

John Rahman won the three-mile in a time of 15:33, and Stan Olson won the pole vault with a leap of 12-0. Don Zimmerhahl tied for first in the high jump with a leap of 5-8, and the Warrior mile relay team was victorious for the only other Winona first.

Friday the Warrior track team will travel to Bemidji for the Bemidji Invitational.

Netmen lose

Winona State's tennis team was blanked by Mankato State Saturday 9-0 in a dual meet.

The netters are now 6-5 on the season, not including Wednesday's match with the University of Minnesota Freshmen. Saturday they will have a meet at Eau Claire.

WIEP Action

Saturday, May 6, WIEP sponsored a quadrangular track with Mankato State, Gustavus Adolphus, University of Minnesota, and Winona State competing.

First place Mankato piled up 84½ points to beat Winona with 54½, the University had 52½, and Gustavus with 2½.

BARB IVERSON and Kathy Dunnum took Winona's only two first places. Iverson won the shot put with a heave of over 34 feet, while Dunnum captured the 220 yard dash in a time of 30 seconds flat. Barb Iverson also tied for first in the long jump.
